Business profile: Every person has their own story, and at Red Nail, we aspire to be a part of that story. Whether its for your business, your lake house, Winter cabin, or within your home, we believe our exclusive furniture that's built with select materials from Northern Europe and with Old World craftsmanship will succeed in telling your story. All of the wood we use is more than 100 years old and is dismantled with care from historical houses built in 1887 and 1890. Our aim was to keep all of its historical paintings. And the painters were the greatest powers on Earth – the sun, the wind, and time.
